

Wednesday 27th November 2013
10.30 - 3.00

Norton Park Conference Centre,
Edinburgh (Just off Easter Road)

Sharing ideas and experience about services led by older people

What we will talk about

- Experiences from projects in Scotland – presentations by a few projects and opportunities to hear from other participants.
- Experiences from co-production and capacity building programmes in other places – presentation by Helen Bowers, National Development Team for Inclusion.
- Opportunities to share what you are doing and get advice and ideas from other people – workshops, information exchange and time to talk over tea.

Who will be there

- Members of groups led by older people, who are providing services.
- People who are interested in developing services led by older people.
- People who run or fund services for older people.
- Other people who want to find out more.

How to take part

There is no charge for the event.

We may be able to help with transport costs for people coming as individuals and for community groups. Please get in touch about this before the event.
