Who we are

People First (Scotland) works for the human rights of people who have the labels of Learning Disability or Intellectual Impairment.

People First (Scotland) is controlled by its members, who all identify themselves in that way.

People First (Scotland) campaigns to establish and protect the same freedom, choice, dignity and control as other citizens across all areas of life.

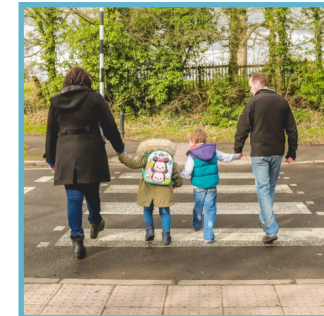

We have a Board of Directors and it is made up only of people with learning disabilities. We have over 60 groups and over 1000 members all over Scotland.

People First is a worldwide movement. We have close links to many other People First groups as far away as New Zealand.

What we want

- To have the same human rights as other people
- To choose where we live and who we live with
- To be free of discrimination and hate crime
- To have fair access to justice under the law
- To have relationships like other people
- To be able to get the support we need to raise a family
- To have proper jobs with decent wages
- To be included in mainstream education
- To be supported to make our own decisions
- To live our lives as equal citizens
