

British Sign Language (BSL) engagement event

Edinburgh and the Lothians plans

24th February 2018, 11am – 3pm,

Welcome: We want to get your views about improving access to services from the Council, NHS and other public organisations. This will help us develop plans linked to the BSL Act in Edinburgh and the Lothians.

Take a look around: Please take your time to look at the BSL videos and printed information around the room and then give us your comments.

Give us your comments: You can either speak to an officer at the tables which interest you and they will note down your comments, or you can write your comments on the paper provided and hand them to a member of staff.

After the event: We will make sure that your comments are passed to the right public body for consideration. If you would like further information about the development of the plans please leave us your contact details on the slips at the welcome table.

BSL Interpreters are available to interpret if required.

Free Tea and coffee is available, so please help yourself.
