

Gain knowledge,
skills and
confidence to campaign and
advocate for better treatment & social justice for disabled
people in our society

Hear from some of the best teachers,
thinkers and
practitioners in the field of human services from Scotland, Europe &
North America

The cost of running the Partners in Policing Programme is £2,500 per person, but due to core funding received from the Scottish Government and other potential funding sources, we are able to offer it free to participants.

The programme consists of 8 weekend sessions which take place over an 8-month period between November 2018 – June 2019 at Stirling Court Hotel, University of Stirling, Airthrey Road, Stirling, FK9 4LA

PARTNERS IN POLICYMAKING

NOVEMBER 2018 – JUNE 2019

An internationally recognized leadership programme for parents of disabled children up to the age of 18 and disabled adults 18 and over.

To find out more about the Partners in Policymaking programme or how to apply for a place, please contact: June Dunlop, Administrator, In Control Scotland, june.d@in-controlscotland.org.uk Tel: 0141 440 5250