

Have Your Say On Disability

Make Your Voice Heard!

We would like to know what you think about what has changed for you as a disabled person or a person with a long term condition, and what still needs to change to make life better.

By completing a short national survey, you can add your voice to help shape the future of a fairer and more inclusive Scotland.

Visit the website below to make your voice heard!

www.your-say-on-disability.org.uk

Scottish Disability
Equality Forum

www.your-say-on-disability.org.uk

Other formats are available from the website, or by calling the Scottish Disability Equality Forum on 01259 272064